

Become a Part-time School Crossing Guard with the Municipality of Trent Hills

If you are someone that cares about the safety of children, is trustworthy, dependable and willing to work a few shifts during the day, you should consider becoming a School Crossing Guard.

You'll not only play a vital role in getting children to and from school safely, you'll be protecting the future of our community.

The Municipality has 9 locations throughout Trent Hills where Crossing Guards are currently stationed; Campbellford (6), Hastings (2) and Warkworth (1).

In order for the Municipality to ensure that all crossings have appropriate coverage, we are seeking individuals who are interested in becoming an Alternate Crossing Guard in Campbellford.

Please send resume marked "Crossing Guard Competition – Confidential" to the following address:
