

Northumberland OPP Detachment Board

As of April 1, 2024, the Community Safety and Policing Act, 2019 replaced the Police Services Act, 1990. The Northumberland OPP Detachment Board was created under this Act. This independent Civilian Oversight Board, with its provincial responsibilities outlined in the Community Safety and Policing Act, 2019 (CSPA), is committed to establishing objectives and priorities, ensuring adequate and effective policing in accordance with the needs of Northumberland County. The Board will promote accountability and transparency by acting as the intermediary to the OPP and to the community.

The Northumberland OPP Detachment Board includes representation from the following Municipalities/Townships and First Nations within the County of Northumberland serviced by the Northumberland OPP Detachment.

- Alderville First Nation
- The Township of Alnwick/Haldimand
- The Municipality of Brighton
- The Township of Cramahe
- The Township of Hamilton
- The Municipality of Trent Hills
